

Student Help-Assistant Position (25% employment)

The i-call (international communications and art law) Research Centre of the Faculty of Law, University of Lucerne, is pleased to offer a Student Help-Assistant Position (25% employment) as part of its research project “International Trade in Indigenous Cultural Heritage: Legal and Policy Issues”, funded by the Swiss National Science Foundation (SNF). The position starts on 1 October 2011 (or as soon as possible), and lasts until 30 November 2012.

The job comprises of:

- Editorial work, e.g. of scientific papers and management of the i-call Working Paper series.
- The assistance with the Project management (e.g. with regard to the website, i-call, library, research database and research reporting).
- Assisting Prof. Christoph Graber and the research team in the conduct of research within the scope of the Project.

The job requires:

- A university degree in law (minimum: BLaw, with good to very good grades).
- Excellent English language skills.
- Interest in the following research areas: trade regulation, human rights, intellectual property, cultural heritage and cultural property.
- Good IT-knowledge: particularly in using Microsoft Word; also in database management and adobe acrobat. No fear in learning to use new programs.
- A keen eye for editorial work.
- Ability to function as part of a closely-knit team.

For further information on the project, please visit:

http://www.unilu.ch/deu/research_projects_135765.html

Or contact Jessica Lai, jessica.lai@unilu.ch.

Please send your application (including cover letter, CV, and copies of educational certificates - both Gymnasium and University) by 30 September 2011, to Jessica Lai, by post to University of Lucerne, i-call Research Centre, Frohburgstrasse 3, PO Box 4466, CH-6002 Lucerne; or electronically to jessica.lai@unilu.ch.