

Forschungskolloquium FS20
Mittwochs, 16.15 – 17.45; Raum, 4.B01

- 26.02.20 Thomas Chambers (Oxford Brookes University)
'Lean on Me': Sifarish, Mediation & the Digitisation of State Bureaucracies in India
- 04.03.20 Nolwenn Bühler (University of Lausanne & University of Neuchâtel) and Luca Chiapperino (University of Lausanne)
Between epigenetics and exposomics: examining postgenomics within 'personalized' biomedicine and public health
- 11.03.20 Hannah Brown (Durham University)
Blind spots in global health: Lassa Fever, Science and the making of neglect in Sierra Leon
- 18.03.20 Studentische Projekte
- 25.03.20 Sanderien Verstappen (University of Vienna)
Visual Anthropology And The Politics Of (In)Visibility
- 01.04.20 Sabine Luning (Leiden University)
The Underground, In-Depth Geopolitics And Gold Mining In Ghana
- 08.04.20 Sandra Calkins (FU Berlin)
Banana rhythms: Landscape, loss and temporality
- 22.04.20 Sohini Kar (The London School of Economics and Political Science)
Enfolding the Poor: Microfinance and the Mediation of Risk in India
- 29.04.20 Arne Harms (University of Leipzig)
Paper, plants and people: On the social life of audits in Indian Carbon Forestry
- 06.05.20 Sahana Udupa (University of Munich)
Digital Dignity: Explorations of Religious Politics Online
- 13.05.20 Ruth Jane Prince (University of Oslo)
"Refiguring the Social?" Kenya's experiments with Universal Health Coverage
- 20.05.20 Salla Sariola (University of Helsinki)
Research as Development: Biomedical Research, Ethics, and Collaboration in Sri Lanka
- 27.05.20 Risa Cromer (Purdue University)
Ex Utero: Frozen Embryo Politics in the United States