

UNIVERSITÄT LUZERN

KULTUR- UND SOZIALWISSENSCHAFTLICHE
FAKULTÄT

ETHNOLOGISCHES SEMINAR

PROF. BETTINA BEER

Departmental Research Seminar Program

Room INS10 / 214 | Tuesday | 16.15 – 17.45

- 24.02. Opening the Field: Current Ethnographic Work at the Department
- 03.03. Faduma Abukar (Universität Luzern): "A Decline of Multilateralism?: Exploratory Insights from Governance Professionals in Nairobi"
- 10.03. Willem Church (Universität Luzern): Beyond Enclosure and Appropriation: How Documentation and Litigation Are (Re)constituting Customary Land across the Post-Colonial World
- 17.03. Clara Bombach (Berner Fachhochschule): "And the I have to start all over again" - Studying the impact of transfers during the asylum procedure on children's life trajectories in Switzerland
- 24.03. Sandra Bärnreuther (Universität Luzern): Bhūt as Critical Companions: India's Digital Health Transformation through a Graphic Ghost Story
- 31.03. Jennifer Cearn's (University of Manchester): KI and Intimate relations
- 07.04. OSTERPAUSE
- 14.04. Lisa Björkman (per Zoom): "Drama of Democracy: thinking the political from Mumbai"
- 21.04. Irene Maffi (Universität Lausanne): "Traumatic birth" as a contemporary idiom of distress. The therapeutic governance of mothers in Switzerland
- 28.04. Susie Bower-Brown (University College London): Family Beyond the Binary: A Community-Focused Project Exploring Non-Binary Family Life
- 05.05. Nicolas Martin (Universität Zürich): "Democracy against Equality; Caste, Institutions and Power in Postcolonial Punjab"
- 12.05. Manuel Rauchholz (Trinity International University in Deerfield): Kinship Studies, the Ideal Norm, and Reality of Life: A Critical Assessment
- 19.05. Harris Solomon (Department of Cultural Anthropology, Durham): "Glitch Medicine and the Anthropology of Error."