

LECTURE SERIES SPRING 2019

LIFE AND DEATH. TOPICS THAT MATTER IN PALLIATIVE CARE

- March 13 6.15 pm, room HS 9 Frohburgstrasse 3, Lucerne
Palliative care: A medical specialty with important future challenges.
Claudia Gamondi, MD
Head of the Palliative and Supportive Care Clinic – IOSI
- March 27 6.15 pm, room HS 9, Frohburgstrasse 3, Lucerne
Palliative and Spiritual Care – an interprofessional patient-centered challenge
Dr. theol. Karin Tschanz
Co-Vice President palliative ch, Director of training in Palliative and Spiritual Care,
Director of training in systemic pastoral care, University of Bern
- April 10 6.15 pm, room HS 9, Frohburgstrasse 3, Lucerne
Challenging ethical issues at the end-of-life
PD Dr. med. Dr. phil. Manuel Trachsel
Senior Research and Teaching Associate
Institute of Biomedical Ethics and History of Medicine, University of Zurich
- May 8 6.15 pm, room HS 9, Frohburgstrasse 3, Lucerne
Challenging communication in palliative care
Ereprof. Dr. Myriam Deveugele
Faculty of Medicine and Health Sciences, University of Ghent, Belgium
- May 22 6.15 pm, room HS 9, Frohburgstrasse 3, Lucerne
«Something more natural to talk about»: reflections on research about raising public awareness of palliative care
Prof. Jane Seymour
Professor of Palliative and End of Life Care
School of Nursing and Midwifery, the University of Sheffield, UK