

Lucerne, January 2013

Programme of the workshop “Foucault and Mobilities Research”

The programme of the workshop consists of 7 sessions with overall 2 keynotes and 11 papers. The contributions are bundled into thematic groups.

Sunday, 6th of January (Venue: KKL, Business-/Medienraum 1)

Session I – Foucault and (im)mobility (Chair: Manderscheid)

09.00h Opening

09.20h – 10.20h: Keynote I: Chris Philo (Glasgow): “‘One must eliminate the effects of ... diffuse circulation, their unstable and dangerous coagulation’: Foucault and the stopping of mobilities”

Session II – Mobile Subjectivities I (Chair: Schwanen)

10.50h – 11.25h Paper I: Marcel Endres (Darmstadt): “Mobile lifestyles and the ‘care of the self’: Foucault’s hermeneutics of the subject and the power of mobility discourses”

11.25h – 12.10h Paper II: Anne Jensen (Aarhus): “Mobility assemblages and the becoming of discursive and experiential mobile subjects”

12.10h – 12.55h Paper III: Jennifer Bonham and Carol Bacchi (Adelaide): “Assembling cycling ‘subjectivities’: Interviews as political interventions”

Session III – Controlling/Securing Mobilities (Chair: Tyfield)

14.00h – 14.45h: Paper IV: Jeremy Packer (Raleigh, NC): “Sieve analysis: understanding screening technologies and the control of mobility”

14.45h – 15.30h: Paper V: Nathaniel O’Grady: (Durham): “Security and circulation: imagining mobile normativity in fire and rescue: governing of future fire distribution”

Session IV – Mobility Dispositifs (Chair: Schwanen)

16.00h – 16.45h: Paper VI: Katharina Manderscheid (Lucerne): “The movement problem of modernity: a combination of regulation theory and Foucauldian concepts”

16.45h – 17.30h: Paper VII: David Tyfield (Lancaster): “Greening China’s cars”

17.30h – 18.00h Discussion

19.30h Diner: Opus

Lucerne,

Monday, 7th of January (Venue: University, 3.B48)

Session V – Governing Mobilities I (Chair: Manderscheid)

09.30h – 10.15h: Paper VIII: Mark Usher (Manchester) “Seeing water like a state: governing the hydrosocial cycle in Singapore”

10.15h – 11.00h: Paper IX: Tim Schwanen (Oxford): “Passenger transport as object of knowledge: shifts in nature and implications for government”

Session VI – Immobilisations (Chair: Tyfield)

11.15h – 12.00h: Paper X: Christophe Mincke and Anne Lemonne (Brussels): “Prison as a mobility “dispositif”?”

12.00h – 12.45h: Paper XI: Yves Jouffe (Paris): “Urban mobility dispositif against exclusion: the new frontier of class normalization, in Santiago, Chile”

Session VII – Governing Mobilities II/End Discussion (Chair: Schwanen)

14.45h – 15.45h Keynote II: Matthew Paterson (Ottawa): “Governing mobilities, mobilising carbon”

15.45h – 16.30h Final Discussion: Future perspectives of Foucauldian mobilities research