

UNIVERSITY OF LUCERNE

FACULTY OF LAW

GLOBAL LEGAL STUDIES (GLS)
A CERTIFICATE PROGRAMME FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

What is GLS?

“Global Legal Studies: International Economic Law, Human Rights and Sustainability (GLS)” is a dedicated certificate programme offered at the Faculty of Law at the University of Lucerne for exchange students at Master’s level. It reflects the different specialisations of the Faculty’s teaching activities and covers its rich palette of courses in English.

Why?

Are you interested in a unique learning experience with active academic interaction in an inspiring environment? Are you eager to understand international, transnational and comparative legal systems, processes and actors? Then join the GLS! The GLS certificate adds value to your academic and professional profile – it provides additional know-how, in particular in the fields of international economic and human rights law, and a comparative advantage on the market for jobs that demand a deeper understanding of global law and policy.

How?

- Open for exchange students at the Faculty of Law in Lucerne
- Successful completion of 5 law courses in English equivalent to 25 ECTS credits (www.unilu.ch/courses-in-english)
- No fees
- Upon completion, a certificate in “Global Legal Studies: International Economic Law, Human Rights and Sustainability” will be awarded

Interested in knowing more about our GLS programme? Please take a look at the Faculty Guidelines.

For further information and consulting, please get in touch with the academic student advisors at studienberatung-rf@unilu.ch