

HISTORY OF LEGAL SOURCES: THE CHANGING STRUCTURE OF LAW

XXII Annual Forum of the Association of Young Legal Historians (Belgrade 6–8 May 2016)

Friday, 6.5.2016.	Conference Hall (Dekanat)	Seminar 333
09.30–10.00	Registration
10.00–11.30	Opening ceremony	/
11.45–13.15	First session, chair: Valerio Massimo Minale <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Athanasios Delios (Democritus University of Thrace), The forensic speeches of the orators as a legal source of the classical period of ancient Athens • Nikol Žiha (Josip Juraj Strossmayer University of Osijek), On reception of Greek maritime norms, or how to find a perfect place for foreign principle in Roman legal system • Réka Busa (Széchenyi István University, Győr), Private Law Sources Concerning Roman Public Games 	First session, chair: Maarten Vankeersbilck <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Wouter Druwé (KU Leuven/Research Foundation - Flanders (FWO)), Transitional Justice in Two Consultations of Hendrik van Kinschot (1541-1608). Learned Legal Practice on Wars, Loans and Credit. • Constance Ornano (University Paris II Panthéon-Assas – Research institute of history of law and roman law), Between public international law and private law: Ransom arrangements as a source of law reflecting the development state powers from XVIth to XVIIIth century? • Blandine Caron (Université Paris II), The destinies of the French Code of Criminal Procedure, in occupied territories during the Napoleonic conquests, in the 19th century: the examples of Piedmont and Belgium
13.15–14.30	Lunch break
14.30–16.00	Second session, chair: Jakub Pokoj <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Pierre-Olivier Rigau (Université Panthéon- 	Second session, chair: Sebastiaan Vandenbogaerde <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Christian Puricel (University of Lucerne), The

	Assas (Paris II)), The Ages Of Rescript <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Tamara Matović (Institute for Byzantine Studies – Serbian Academy of Sciences and Arts), A Contribution to the Studies of the Byzantine Law: The evolution of institutions of the Private Law and the discrepancy in the sources • Silvia Schiavo (University of Ferrara), Changing Structure of Roman Law. 'Primary' and 'Secondary' Legal Sources in Postclassical and Justinian's Ages 	function of legal commentaries <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Miljana Todorović (University of Niš), The Legal Development of Tapus (Title Deeds) in Nineteenth Century Serbia • Nenad Božović (University of Belgrade), The Theological Context of Old Testament Collections of Laws
16.15–17.45	Third session, chair: Bruno Debaenst <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Luisa Stella de Oliveira Coutinho Silva (University of Lisbon), Legal Sources Between Colony and Metropolis: Gender Relations in a Transnational System During the Colonization of Brazil • Jonathan Brown (The University of Strathclyde/Glasgow Caledonian University), A Particularly Protracted Reception: The Slow Death of Scotland's Mixed Legal System • Saptarshi Mandal (OP Jindal Global University), Travelling Fictions of Law: Colonialism, Legal Diffusion and Sources of Law 	Amphitheatre IV Third session, chair: Omer Aloni <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Tina Miletić (University of Split), Activity of Praetor as the Source of Roman Law of Succession Through Institute of Bonorum Possessio ex Edicto Carboniano • Ognjen Vujović (University of Priština – Kosovska Mitrovica), Furtum and Iniuria • Valerio Massimo Minale (Università Federico II, Napoli), Aemilius Macer, Intervalla Insaniae of the Furiosus and Imputability: About D. 1.18.14
18.00–19.30	Fourth session, chair: Nikol Žiha <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Kaat Cappelle (Vrije Universiteit Brussel), Urban law in sixteenth-century Antwerp: rethinking the legal-economic position of married women 	Fourth session, chair: Miljana Todorović <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Élisabeth Bruyère (University of Ghent), Francois Laurent's Draft Civil Code for Belgium (1882-1885): The story of a partisan work

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Christina Reimann (Institute for European History, Mainz/Centre Marc Bloch, Berlin), Port Cities and the Idea of Insurance Legal Sources for Social Security in Late 19th Century Antwerp and Rotterdam • Zina Hajila (Panthéon-Assas University, Paris II), Evolution of sources of enforcement proceedings. Inquiry into the history of the seizure of property 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Sebastiaan Vandenbogaerde (University Ghent), Belgium's Legal Periodicals (1830–1914): History of an Unofficial Legal Source • Cato van Paddenburgh (KU Leuven), Prosopography in legal historical research
20.30	Dinner

Saturday, 7.5.2016.	Conference Hall (Dekanat)	Amphitheatre IV	Seminar 333
09.00–10.30	First session, chair: Tamara Matović <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Jakub Pokoj (Jagiellonian University), Sources of law in people's state. The legal nature of Polish Supreme Court's directions (1944-1989) • Stefan Dušanić (University of Belgrade), Judicial Practice as a Source of Serbian Law • Miloš Vukotić (University of Belgrade), Laesio enormis in Serbian Law: Historical and Comparative Perspective 	First session, chair: Ognjen Vujović <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Marius Müller (University of Passau), The Notion of Sovereignty in the Constitutional Process of Cádiz (1810–1812) • Da Lu (University of Szeged), The Development of Constitution of China – The Hierarchy of National and Transnational Legal Sources • Santiago Vallejo Galárraga (University of Szeged), Antecedents of Recognition of Rights of Nature, as a subject of law, in the Ecuadorian 	First session, chair: Wouter Druwé <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Amélie Verfaillie (Ghent University), Amnesty International and the design of international human rights – Lobbying the United Nations • Sebastian Krafzik (KU Leuven), Banking regulation in the Western European legal tradition (ca. 1800-1980): a history of failure? • Maarten Vankeersbilck (Universiteit Gent), Louis Major and the emancipation of social law in Belgium

		Constitutional Law
10.45–12.15	Second session, chair: Miloš Vukotić <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Omer Aloni (Tel-Aviv University), Early Environmentalism and Diplomacy at the Birth of Modern International Law: the League of Nations, 1919–1939 • Raffaella Bianchi Riva (Università degli Studi di Milano), Judges and Legislators in Italian Transitional Justice (1943–1948) • Jean Charriaud (Université Paris II Panthéon-Assas), L'École de l'exégèse et le postulat de complétude du système juridique français issu du Code civil : entre mythe et réalité... 	Second session, chair: Stefan Dušanić <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Simone Rosati (University of Milan), The Medieval Statutes of Agricultural Corporations in the Territories of the Papal State. Historical-Juridical Study. Centuries XIV–XV • Laurent Le Tilly (Université Panthéon – Assas (Paris II)), The desuetude of legal sources according to the medieval doctrine of canon law, the example of the Peace and the Truce of God • Łukasz Gołaszewski (University of Warsaw), The papal breve and the Parliament's Act about the tithe. The influence of two incompatible sources of law on legal practice in the Polish-Lithuanian Commonwealth 	Second Session, chair: Élisabeth Bruyère <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Stefan Andonović (University of Belgrade), The Yearbook 1908 of the International Olympic Committee – the First Legal Source of International Sports Law • Đurđa Bolanča (University of Split), Directive – a source of law within national legal systems of Member States • Sofia Vandenbosch (Université de Liège), History of the Influence of non-national sources in the case law of constitutional jurisdictions in the United States, France and Belgium
12.15–14.00	Lunch break
14.00–15.30	Third session, chair: Christina Reimann <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Silvan Schenkel (University of Lucerne), The German "Juristentag" 1933. The rise of the "Union of National Socialist German Lawyers" 	Third session, chair: Simone Rosati <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Jan Jerzy Sowa (University of Warsaw), Military commanders as legislators in early modern Poland-Lithuania 	/

	and the self-mobilization of the German lawyers' elite <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Gábor Bathó (Pázmány Péter Catholic University), Forms of Legal Sources Determining the Structure of the Government in Hungary Between 1848 and 2010 • Krzysztof Chmielewski (Adam Mickiewicz University in Poznań), Legal sources of Polish penitentiary law in the years 1918–1939 and the concepts of their codification 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Piotr Pomianowski/Tomasz Królasik (University of Warsaw), Application problems of foreign language legal sources. Reception of French law in Poland • Marcin Łysko (University of Białystok), Forms of law-making in Poland in the 20th century
15.45–17.15	Fourth session, chair: Jenny Wienert <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Zoran Devrnja (University of Belgrade), Sources of Canon Law – The presence of Roman law in the Church canons • Sarah Bakkali-Hassani (Université Panthéon-Assas (Paris II)), The Will in the Summa Confessionis • Rafał Kaczmarczyk (University of Warsaw), The diverse and changing structure of legal sources in the Muslim legal area 	Fourth session, chair: Stefan Andonović <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Bruno Debaenst (Ghent University), The hidden source of labor regulation and inspection in Belgium • Filippo Rossi (Università degli Studi di Milano), The changing structure of labour law: ordinary courts building a new system in the Italian liberal age (1865-1914) • Dénes Legeza (University of Szeged), The Assignment of Copyright Law in Light of Hungarian Supreme Court Cases 	/

18.00–19.30	Fifth session, chair: Zoran Devrnja <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Ans Vervaeke (Vrije Universiteit Brussel), Is it all about the money? Analysing legal costs in the context of the great litigation decline in the Franc of Bruges (1690-1795) • Máté Pétervári (University of Szeged), 81 interpretations of one legal source by the supervision of the Ministry 	Fifth session, chair: Dénes Legeza <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Jenny Wienert (University of Tübingen), Conflict of legal sources in the 16th century • Ana Delić (Tilburg Law School), The Foundations of Modern Private International Law in Europe • Žaneta Nowacka (Adam Mickiewicz University Poznań), The Legislative Way to Uniform the Patent Protection in European Union 	/
19.45–20.15	General Assembly of AYLH	/	/
21.00	Dinner

Sunday 8.5.2016
10.00–17.00	Excursion to Fruška Gora