Lucerne, December 2014

Fees

Application fee

The fee for an application is CHF 100.00, independent of the study level and of the faculty.
Application fees can neither be reimbursed nor transferred to another semester.

Tuition fees for Bachelor's, Master's and Diploma studies

The tuition fees per semester are as follows:

	Educational residents[1]		Educational foreigners[1]
Semester fee[2]	CHF	725.00	CHF	725.00
Fee for educational foreigners[1]			CHF	300.00
Examination fee[3]	CHF	70.00	CHF	70.00
SOL contribution[4]	CHF	15.00	CHF	15.00
	CHF	810.00	CHF	1'110.00

The tuition fees per semester for educational foreigners of Joint Degree Program „Religion, Economics and Politics" are as follows:

	Educational foreigners[1]
Semester fee[2]	CHF	725.00
Fee for educational foreigners[1]	CHF	100.00
Examination fee[3]	CHF	70.00
SOL contribution[4]	CHF	15.00
	CHF	910.00

Tuition fees for Doctoral studies

The tuition fees per semester are as follows:

	Educational residents[1]		Educational foreigners[1]
Semester fee[2]	CHF	225.00	CHF	225.00
Fee for educational foreigners[1]			CHF	100.00
SOL contribution[4]	CHF	15.00	CHF	15.00
	CHF	240.00	CHF	340.00

Examination fees are charged to doctoral students at the end of their doctorate.

1) In education policy, students who were residents of Switzerland when they obtained their certificate qualifying them for university admission (e.g. "Matura", "Abitur", primary school teacher certificate etc.) are called educational residents (Bildungsinländer/innen), regardless of their nationality. Students who resided outside of Switzerland when they received their student qualification certificate are called educational foreigners (Bildungsausländer/innen), even if they are of Swiss nationality.

2) Regulation No. 544 by the Executive Council of Lucerne

3) The examination fee is CHF 70.00 per semester: the total being CHF 420.00 for the Bachelor's degree and CHF 210.00 for the Master's degree.

4) SOL = Student Organisation of the University of Lucerne