- Full proficiency in English (C1 level or better);
- Excellent communication and writing skills.

The following skills are a plus:

- Proficiency in French, German or Spanish (B2 level or better);
- Earlier professional experience in the field of Climate or SDG finance.

We highly value:

- Strong work ethics, passion for the cause, results-orientation;
- Reliable team player;
- Excellent analytical skills;
- Voracious reader with research affinity;
- Attention to detail;
- Independent work style with a proactive attitude and dedication.

Your Tasks

Our Website shows the seven services we offer and you can be involved in all of them. Your specific tasks and responsibilities as an Analyst will depend on your background, previous experiences and interests.

Our Offer

At Broadpeak, we share a very positive attitude towards our work and believe that performance is fulfillment. As a highly flexible company, we operate accordingly:

- Flexibility with regards to your location (work from anywhere in the world);
- Flexibility with regards to your weekly working hours (4 to 20 hours per week);
- Coaching sessions to ensure your continuous and steep on-the-job learning curve.
